Introduction to ADD/ADHD

Where? Rydges Hotel, Cathedral Square
Time? 9:00 – 2:45
(09:00 – 12:30 Dr. Watt; 1:00 – 2:30 Practical Session for the classroom /at home)
9:00 Registration
9:10 Please be seated
Cost? $120.00 per person including notes, morning tea and lunch
$45.00 for a parent whose child(-ren) are tutored at Train the Brain

Content?
- Definition
- Terminology
- Assessment and Identification of ADD/ADHD
- Characteristics of ADD/ADHD
- What does research say?
- ADD/ADHD in the classroom
  - Self-esteem
  - inclusion and differentiation
  - teaching tips
  - utilizing the teacher aide
  - parent/teacher communication and co-operation
  - Behaviour management

Presenter? Dr. Colin Watt – Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist

Colin Watt practices as a child and adolescent psychiatrist in Christchurch. He specialized in general psychiatry with a further two year post fellowship in child and adolescent psychiatry. Colin works as a child and adolescent psychiatrist in Tauranga, Hamilton and Christchurch.
His special interests include ADHD, adolescent depression, anxiety disorders and parent behaviour management.

Please book before 17 February 2010

I/We would like to attend the seminar on Introduction to ADD/ADHD on 25 February 2010.

Name(s): ____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Teacher(s) at: _______________________________________________________________________
OR
Parent of: ___________________________________________________________________________

Contact Details: Ph: _____________________________ email: _________________________________
Please enclose your payment. Cheques to: Train the Brain, 17 Kinver Place, Spreydon, Christchurch or deposit Westpac 03 1594 0190001 00 Email: info@trainthebrain.co.nz Ph 331 6391